

Challenges of the Transition from Pediatric to Adult Oncology: Best Practices in Austria

Prim. Univ. Prof. Dr. Felix Keil,
Head of 3rd Medical Department Hanusch-Clinic Vienna,
Head of Hematological Network Vienna

Interdisciplinary Oncological Aftercare Transition – IONA in Vienna

What is IONA?

- Multidisciplinary team in the fields of hemato-oncology, psychology, social work and case management providing medical treatment, functional psychological assessment, social work support and interdisciplinary case management

IONA – for which patients?

- For adults (aged 18 and over)
- Who had a hemato-oncological disease as children, adolescents or young adults
- And have a need for long-term outpatient surveillance

IONA Patient referring Institutions 2020-2024: 628 Patients

Evaluation of n=628 IONA-Patients in Vienna (2020-2024)

Primary Diagnosis

Diagnosis
CNS Tumor	28%
Acute Leukemia/MDS	22%
Neuroblastoma, soft tissue sarcoma, bone tumors	19%
Morbus Hodgkin	16%
Rare Diseases	11%
Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma	4%

Reason for Admission

	N (%)
Medical Treatment	628 (100%)
Psychological Treatment	562 (89%)
Special Neurological Treatment	162 (26%)
Support in Social Problems	81 (13%)

Late Effects / Comorbidities

Comorbidities
Endocrinologic	35%
Cardiovascular	35%
Osteoporosis/Osteopenia	34%
Neurocognitive	21%
Fatigue-Symptoms	17%
Epilepsy/Neuro	8%
Obesity	7%
Secondary Malignancy	5%