

Svensk Förening för Hematologi - SFH

Swedish Hematology Association

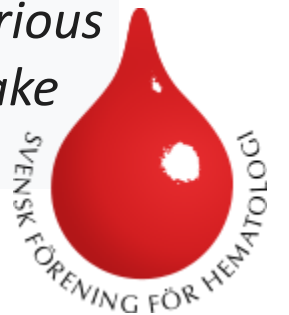

Swedish Hematology Association

- Founded in 1962
- National 3 day meeting since 1985
- Hematology examination - 1989
- Magazine - (4/yr)
- Grant - hematology dissertation
- Classes doctors in training 3-4 days (3/yr)
- Quality registries -1997
- Website -1999
- Webbinars (8-10/yr)

The association's main tasks are to promote the development and practical application of hematology in Sweden by organizing lectures, discussions, courses and congresses as well as promoting research.

The association shall also promote specialist training in hematology and safeguard the union interests of the members.

The association shall support and cooperate with the national groups that work in various areas of hematology and, if necessary, take the initiative to form new groups.

Groups of interest and national guidelines

- AML
- ALL
- MDS (nordic)
- CML (nordic)
- CLL
- Myeloproliferative disorders
- Myeloma
- Lymphoma –associated to the Swedish Oncology Association
- Cellular therapy
- PNH
- Mastocytos
- Benign hematology
- Palliative hematology

AML
ALL
MDS
CML
CLL
Myeloproliferative neoplasms
Myeloma
AL amyloidosis
Aggressive B-cell lymphomas
Indolent B-cell lymphoma and hairy cell lymphoma
Hodgkin lymphoma
T-cell lymphoma
Mantelcell lymphoma
Morbus Waldenström
Dermatology lymphoma

PNH
Mastocytos
ITP
TTP
Thalassemia
Sickle cell anemia
Aplastic anemia

Swedish Hematology Association

- 720 members (2024)
 - 311 specialists in hematology
 - 181 doctors in training
 - 155 retired hematologists
 - 55 industry
 - 18 nurses etc
- Board; president, secretary, treasurer, 4 members
- Choosing wisely
 - "Time needed to treat"
 - Prevalence
- Nurses specialized in hematology
- Accessibility to new drugs
- Clinical studies
- Continuing education