

LATE-BREAKING ABSTRACT SUBMISSION TERMS AND CONDITIONS 2020

Introduction

The EHA Late-Breaking Abstracts Policy allows for the submission of abstracts containing clinical or non-clinical data which were incomplete at the time of the abstract submission deadline (March 1, 2020). For clinical trials a preplanned analysis of the primary endpoint should have been scheduled after this date.

Terms & Conditions

The submitted abstracts should fully adhere to the guidelines below as well as the regulations applying to the regular abstract submission:

- The Scientific Program Committee (SPC) only accepts original scientific material unpublished at the time of the abstract submission deadline. Abstracts containing previously published information will be rejected.
- Abstracts submitted to large international meetings which are organized in the same period as the EHA Congress (May – July) are allowed to be submitted to the Congress. Examples of international meetings are the American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO), International Society of Thrombosis and Haemostasis (ISTH) and the International Congress on Malignant Lymphomas (ICML).
- Authors of submitted abstracts irrevocably and unconditionally transfer, which transfer EHA hereby accepts, any and all copyright to the abstract to EHA, the European Hematology Association. In accordance with the Abstract Submission Terms & Conditions and after the abstract has been published, either in print or online, authors retain the right to:
 - reprint the article in print collections of the author's own writing;
 - present the work orally in its entirety;
 - use the article in theses and/or dissertation;
 - reproduce the article for use in courses he/she is teaching and to the extent that he/she is employed by an academic institution, the institution may also reproduce the article for course teaching;
 - distribute photocopies of the article to colleagues, but only for non-commercial purposes;
 - reuse figures and tables created by the author in future works; and post a copy of the article on my personal website, departmental website, and/or the university intranet. A hyperlink to the article / publication on the EHA website must be included.

EHA will utilize the copyright in a reasonable way, related to the publishing, republishing and transfer of copyrights of submitted abstracts.

- Submitted abstracts are considered embargoed from the time of submission.
- Withdrawal policy: If authors wish to withdraw their abstracts from presentation they are requested to send a letter via e-mail to the congress secretariat before May 27. Consequently, the abstract will not be presented nor published.
- Late-breaking abstracts will be made available in the online version of the Abstract Book (official supplement of HemaSphere), the EHA Library (previously known as the EHA Learning Center), the mobile app and via the program on the EHA website. The abstracts will not be included in the printed version of the Abstract Book.

How to submit an abstract

For access to the abstract form, you will first require a login name and password. You may choose your own login name and password. If you have already used MCI's B-Com program before for EHA or another congress, you can use these login details.

Step by step guide:

1. Contact information - Fill in all fields marked with (*)

Note: the person submitting will be who is contacted regarding an abstract status when announced as of May 27.

2. Submission type selection - Read and accept the declaration, Click next.
3. Abstract Classification - fill in all fields marked with (*).
4. Authors - Please follow instructions for all author and co-author details here. Note that the first entry in the table is pre-filled with the submitter's details. This entry can be removed by clicking on (X).
5. Abstract body - Here you enter your abstract and upload an image/figure if you have this (please note instructions on the right side of the page, and for image information this is beneath the grey upload box).
6. Abstract Preview - You will then be able to preview your abstract. If your abstract has met all requirements you will see a grey box "set as final submission". You click this box only when you are happy with your abstract to finally submit for review.

If you're abstract does not meet the requirements you will be asked to save as a draft. You can then login in as often as you wish before the deadline to amend until you are happy with it and it meets all requirements.

7. Confirmation - Once you click "set as final submission" your abstract is set for review. However, before the submission deadline (May 14, 2020; 23:59 CEST), you will be able to login again and edit your abstract. Note that you will no longer be able to edit your abstract after the submission deadline.

After submitting your abstract successfully, you and the co-authors will receive a confirmation of the submission by e-mail.
