Introduction

The abstract submission guidelines of the EHA Research Conference “Molecular vulnerabilities and metabolism in hematological disorders” (ReCon 2024) are intended to provide clear instructions before submitting an abstract. You are kindly requested to carefully read the guidelines stated below.

The EHA and the Scientific Program Committee (SPC) of ReCon 2024 of the meeting maintain the right to reject any abstract that does not meet below requirements.

Deadline abstract submission

The deadline for abstract submission is November 1, 2023 (23:59 CET), submissions received after this deadline will not be considered.

Submission guidelines

The submitted abstracts and cases should fully adhere to the guidelines below.

1. Abstracts should be submitted in clear (American) English to allow the reviewers to focus on the scientific content of the abstract. Non-English-speaking authors are encouraged to have their abstract checked for grammar and spelling.
2. The SPC assumes all presenting authors have proficiency in English, thus are able to present and respond to questions.
3. In clinical studies, please state whether informed consent was obtained from patients.
4. The title and text may not contain trade names. The SPC reserves the right to replace trade names in accepted abstracts.
5. If off label use of drugs was involved, please state this clearly.
6. Withdrawal policy: If authors wish to withdraw their abstracts from presentation or publication they are requested to send a letter via e-mail to the EHA Executive Office (eharecon@ehaweb.org) before December 15, 2023. Consequently the abstract will not be presented nor published.

Terms & conditions

1. The SPC encourages the submission of original scientific material unpublished at the time of the abstract submission deadline:
 - a. Abstracts submitted to regional or national hematology meetings can be submitted to the EHA Research Conference for inclusion in the program;
 - b. Abstracts submitted to large international meetings which are organized in the same period as the EHA Research Conference (February – April 2024) are allowed to be submitted to the meeting.
 - c. Abstracts submitted to other large international meetings may also be submitted providing a clear indication about significant novel or updated information included in the appropriate abstract submission field.
2. Authors of submitted abstracts shall be the sole and exclusive owner of the abstract and all associated intellectual property rights. By submitting the abstract to EHA, the author grants EHA the right to use and (commercial) reprint the abstract in relation to the EHA Research Conference. Authors of submitted abstracts understand and agree that EHA will not pay compensation for this license.
3. Authors of submitted abstracts guarantee that the abstract (and all associated intellectual property rights) is free of any third party rights to the fullest extent permitted by law, including but not limited to, inventor's rights of remuneration and any other ancillary rights.
4. By submitting an abstract the submitting author confirms that they have approval from all the co-authors to submit and use the data in the abstract.
5. Submitted abstracts are considered embargoed from the time of submission.
6. Please do not submit the same study in multiple abstracts. Abstracts that appear as more than one version of a single study will be rejected.
7. Similarly, abstracts or (close) copies, may not be submitted under more than 1 category.

Applicable law and jurisdiction

The above Terms and conditions are governed by the laws of the Netherlands. Any dispute related to these terms and conditions and the use or publication of the abstract shall be exclusively submitted to the District court in the Hague, the Netherlands.

Abstract review, selection and publication

1. All submitted abstracts will be reviewed by members of the Scientific Program Committee and selected faculty of the EHA Research Conference.
2. Abstracts may be selected for
 - a. oral presentation
 - b. poster presentation
 - c. rejection
3. Only the submitting author will receive a confirmation of acceptance for oral presentation, poster presentation, or a notice of rejection, by e-mail by November 23, 2023.
4. Authors of abstracts selected for an oral presentation will be informed about the date of the session and presentation guidelines will be provided.
5. Oral abstract presenters (excluding poster pitch presenters) will be registered for the EHA Research Conference by EHA and offered hotel accommodation based on their travel itinerary, for a maximum of 3 nights.
 - a. Additional nights can be booked by EHA but must be paid by the individual.
6. Authors of abstracts selected for a poster presentation will be informed about the date of the poster session and will receive guidelines for their presentation.
7. The best abstracts scored as a poster presentation will be selected for an oral 'pitch' presentation in addition to having a poster in the poster area.
8. Authors of abstracts selected for a 'pitch' presentation will be informed about the date of the session and presentation guidelines will be provided.
9. All accepted abstracts will be published in the digital abstract book for meeting attendees. Note that after publication the abstracts cannot be modified.
